

the LARRY ADAIR lectureship series

the LARRY ADAIR lectureship series

presented by Northeastern State University

The Larry Adair Lectureship Series was established at NSU in 2004 by friends and family of the retiring Oklahoma Speaker of the House to create an annual forum through which to address issues in politics, government and public policy.

the LARRY ADAIR lectureship series

President Larry and Pam Williams cordially invite you to be their guest at a reception and dinner in honor of the first Larry Adair Lectureship Series.

Friday, September 8, 2006 at 6 P.M.

Northeastern State University Senator Herb Rozell Ballroom
Second Floor of the University Center

Keynote Speaker: Jim Edmondson — Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court

You are also invited to attend a public forum at 3 P.M. in the auditorium of the Northeastern Education and Technology Building.

Topic: Appointing a Court — The Supreme Court's Impact on America

Panelists: Jim Edmondson — Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court

Yvonne Kauger — Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court

Drew Edmondson — Oklahoma Attorney General

Chad Smith — Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation

Brad Carson — Former U.S. Congressman

Dr. Justin Halpern — NSU Professor of Political Science

Seating is limited. Please RSVP to 458-2000 by Friday, September 1, 2006